Bill Johnson pays Mary Smith $215 per week in child support.

Summarize the current court ordered child support that you are trying to change

This should almost always be checked

3. Since that date, there is now a difference between the amount of the existing child support order and the amount that would result from application of the Child Support Guidelines issued by the Chief Justice for Administration and Management.

Check this if incomes, health insurance, or parenting times have changed the following change(s) in circumstance have occurred:

I lost my job and took another job that pays less than I made before. Mary started working full time and now makes a lot more money that she did at the time of the child support order. When I put our current incomes into the current Child Support Guidelines Worksheet, it says I should only pay her $71 per week.

4. When January 15, 2016
health insurance, or parenting time with children be modified by (date)

Explain what has changed since the time of your original child support order. Typically this is changes in income,

Enter the date when the court made the order that you are trying to change changing the amount of child support that Bill pays Mary from $215 per week to $71 per week.

Say what you want the new child support amount to be. The new amount usually comes from the Child Support Guidelines Worksheet
